Center for Computer Literacy Courses

ICT100

Computer Literacy

https://btu.baskent.edu.tr

- ICT100 Computer Literacy is a required course for all freshmen in vocational schools and faculties except those in the Faculty of Engineering. This course is given online via distance learning methods.

- Those 100% English programs' students, who enrolled in our university after the 2018-2019 academic year, are required to take ICT100 Computer Literacy course.

- ICT100 has 8 modules;
    1) The specific knowledge and ICT concepts used at Başkent University
    2) Web Browsing and Communication
    3) Concepts of Information and Communication Technology (ICT)
    4) Using the Computer and Managing Files
    5) Word Processing – Microsoft Word - Academic Journals Search, Academic Writing, Use of Digital Libraries
    6) Presentation – Microsoft PowerPoint
    7) Spreadsheets – Microsoft Excel
    8) Using Databases – Microsoft Access

- ICT100 Exemption Exam will be held ONLINE on Sunday, 15th September 2024 at 14.00.
    o Application: Başkent University Student Information System (ogrenci.baskent.edu.tr).
    o Application Deadline: 13.09.2024, 17.00.

- ICT100 Exemption Exam is compulsory (during the first 4 semesters). Then, the right of taking Exemption Exam is over at the beginning of student's 5th semester in his/her department.

- All information about ICT100 Exemption Exam can be accessed via https://btu.baskent.edu.tr. The detailed information about the test day has been announced on Exam Guide on the website (Exams-Exemption Exam).
    o Exam results will be announced on the website.

- Those (all Başkent University students including English Preparatory School students but not Faculty of Engineering) who will not have the passing score (65 or above) at the Exemption Exam should register for the related Computer Literacy course (BTU100/ICT100) during the 2024-2025 Academic Year.